

Lincoln County Leader.

Volume VIII.

Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon, Friday, December 14, 1900.

Number 41.

LOCAL IN BRIEF.

William Ewart Gladstone Conroy, aged 2 years, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Conroy, is the victim of a budding young surgeon in the person of the 4-year-old son of L. Mickelson. Tuesday afternoon the children were playing in the Conroy woodshed, when the little Mickelson boy took an axe and nearly severed one of William Ewart Gladstone's best fingers. When questioned by his father, the chopper said he told his little playmate two or three times to take his finger out of the way, but he wouldn't do it. However, the digit was stuck back into place and will probably in time become just as good as anybody's finger.

The Toledo schools will give an entertainment in the circuit courtroom next Friday night for the purpose of raising funds for a library. Tickets representing stock in the library will be offered for sale by the pupils next week and these will admit purchasers to the entertainment. It is hardly necessary to say this effort deserves the hearty support of every citizen. Those who do not have an opportunity to secure tickets before may get them at the door Friday evening. Everybody will be there.

A new road is being constructed this week over the first point on the beach north of the lighthouse, which will obviate the danger and trouble of passing that place. Wild Bill Smith, the Bear Killer of Bald Knob, is superintending the work and has a force of skillful shovelers consisting of Lee Williams, Frank Priest, Dr. Hendry and other leading citizens of Newport and vicinity. It is an important improvement.

Dr. S. S. Thayer, C. M. Reynolds and THE LEADER drove down to Otter Rock last Saturday, returning Monday. Dr. Thayer has a fine homestead about a mile back from the beach at that point which is rapidly being devastated by deer. He is planning to return with a few brave and able-bodied assistants and protect his property.

Frank Hyde of Eddyville had business in Toledo the latter part of last week. He has purchased a "varmint" dog of S. J. Stewart of Drift creek which has a reputation second only to that of his famous old dog which was recently killed by a bear.

Andrew Charles arrived on the steamer Roberts last Friday from the Siuslaw and went over to the Agency next day. Andy says he got plenty seasick on the trip up.
